WHAT DO WE DO

We provide challenging and innovative interprofessional educational programs, to meet the learning needs of health care practitioners

- Accredit programs
- Conference management services

WHAT'S NEW

- Newly refreshed Mission, Policies and Website
 - New Mission expands our mandate to represent the needs of all three schools and emphasizes interprofessional education
- Underwent Accreditation by CACME in October 2012
- New Office Manager - Laura McDiarmid laura.mcdiarmid@queensu.ca
- Free podcasts hosted on our website
- Reaching out to our regional partners such as LHEARN, Quinte

TASK LIST

- Check out our renewed website <http://healthsci.queensu.ca/cpd>
- Contact us with your ideas for life-long learning
- Commit to upload your events to a FHS educational calendar
- Submit a "This Changed My Practice" article

OPPORTUNITIES

- Will be including SEAMO Faculty commitments to CPD and FD in the Accountability Framework
- Tape and post Grand Rounds, especially visiting speakers, on the CPD website for asynchronous viewing by all including our regional faculty
- FHS Educational Calendar
 - Have a calendar that all educational rounds in the FHS will be posted and categorized. The goal is to foster collaborative efforts, optimize the time of visiting speakers, and avoid significant conflicts
- Write an article on what changed your practice
 - Check out the website "This Changed My Practice", We have established an agreement with UBC to host articles on this site from Queen's faculty with appropriate recognition
- We are looking to recruit a physician who would be willing to be trained as a physician coach for a collaborative project with CPD Ontario called Assisting Physicians for Life-long Learning (APLL)
