Terms of Reference

Establishment of Award

The Ron Wigle Mentorship Award was established in the School of Medicine at Queen's University to honour Dr. Ronald Wigle in recognition of his role as outstanding mentor and the professional values he epitomized throughout his career.

Purpose of Award

Dr. Wigle was committed to promoting the success of others to the ultimate benefit of the medical community at large. Throughout his exemplary career at Queen's University, numerous faculty, undergraduate and graduate students flourished through his wise guidance and encouraging leadership. This award, named in his honor, will help to perpetuate these important virtues by recognizing those who embody them.

Award Guidelines

This award will be presented consistent with the following guidelines:

1. The award will be available for one Faculty Member each year within the School of Medicine at Queen's University who demonstrates the highest standard of achievement in mentorship of others. The nominee will be identified as a role model for colleagues and learners and as one who exhibits qualities in keeping with the values of professionalism.
2. Any faculty member, resident or medical student in the School of Medicine can make a nomination. Alternatively, a group may submit a joint nomination. Nominators are encouraged to solicit support from multiple sources endorsing this nomination. Nominations should consist of a completed copy of the attached nomination form and a detailed letter outlining the reasons for the nomination. A resume of the nominee is not needed nor will it be considered as any part of a nomination.
3. Nominations are to be submitted annually to Professional Development and Educational Scholarship on behalf of the Vice-Dean Education. Selection will be made by a committee appointed by the Associate Dean Professional Development and Educational Scholarship. The Vice-Dean Education will Chair this selection committee to be comprised of the Associate Dean Professional Development and Educational Scholarship, Vice-Dean Education, Associate Dean Postgraduate Medical Education (PGME) or designate, the Associate Dean Undergraduate Medical Education (UGME) or designate, the Assistant Dean UGME Student Affairs, a PGME Program Director, a Resident and a representative from the Aesculapian Society.
4. All nominees will receive a letter informing them of their nomination.
5. This award will be presented to the recipient at the Dean's annual Faculty of Health Sciences Reception in June.
