

Preceptor Education Night

Queen's & ERMEP bring you Tips & Tricks for Clinical Teaching

Tuesday, May 27, 2025, 5:00 - 7:45 pm
Brockville, The Mill Restaurant

Queen's University Office of Professional Development and Educational Scholarship (OPDES) partners with the Eastern Regional Medical Education Program (ERMEP) for an evening of education and collaboration. Discuss contemporary cases, integrate high-impact practices and improve your skill as a preceptor.

Open to preceptors, teaching and learning educators, faculty and more.

AGENDA

Tuesday, May 27, 2025

The Mill Restaurant

123 Water Street, Brockville, Ontario

5:00 PM REGISTRATION

5:15 PM WHY WE TEACH: MAXIMIZING THE BENEFITS OF BEING A PRECEPTOR

Robin Kennie, MD, Medical Director, Eastern Ontario Medical Education Program

- Discuss why teaching is valuable in difficult times
- Identify what a teacher gets out of teaching especially the benefit of new perspectives provided by generational differences
- Integrate strategies for facilitating learning using a smaller clinic footprint

6:00 PM THE CHALLENGING LEARNER: FEEDBACK STRATEGIES AND VOCABULARY

Meera Ruparelia, MD, Clerkship Director, Family Medicine MD Program

Heather Braund, PhD, OCT, Associate Director, Scholarship and Simulation Education

- Provide timely, specific, and actionable feedback to learners based on direct observation of performance
- Distinguish when, what, and how to document observations in clinical education
- Integrate practical approaches that allow direct observation that don't impede your clinic flow

6:45 PM SMALL GROUP DISCUSSIONS OF CASES (CHOOSE 1 OR 2)

- 1. Cultural Sensitivity and confronting microaggressions in clinic
- 2. Layered Learning discussion and examples
- 3. Teaching Procedures at Clinic
  - Discuss contemporary issues in faculty development with peers
  - Integrate high impact practices from peers and yourself in your clinical teaching

7:45 PM ADJOURNMENT